Centennial High School Speech and Debate students sweep in multiple events
Centennial High School’s Speech and Debate team had a great showing at last Saturday’s Silverton Overflow tournament, hosted at Sandy High School. Students swept in multiple events. Congratulations to the following students:

Food for Families hosts Milk & Cookies with Santa
Food for Families is hosting its second annual Milk & Cookies with Santa, Saturday, December 7, 9 a.m. – 12 noon, in the Centennial High School Commons. There will be treats, coffee and hot chocolate, pictures and stories with Santa, baskets for raffle and coloring pages. Cost is $10 per person or $40 per family (2-and-under free.) Tickets are available online at www.food4families.net.

Photos from Around the District
(Left) Gethsemane Lutheran Church recently donated winter coats to Parklane Elementary School. There are many students who need a warm coat as the weather continues to get colder. A big thank you to the members of Gethsemane Lutheran Church.
(Left) Teachers from Powell Butte Elementary School spent time last week working together to schedule conferences.

(Below) Parklane Elementary School sixth graders recently performed a skit during a school assembly about the Jog-A-Thon. The students dressed up as superheroes to get their message across.